The acting official draws the attention of the man declaring paternity and the individuals declaring consent to the legal consequences of the declaration and informs the parties of the following:

- The declaration cannot be withdrawn once the record is signed.
- The acknowledgment of paternity cannot be declared subject to a condition, such a declaration is invalid.
- The full acknowledgement of paternity is effective to all parties.
- When acknowledging paternity, the acting authority will examine whether the conditions included in Section 4:101 (1) of the Civil Code exist, and informs the man declaring paternity and the individuals declaring consent of the following:
  - If, at the time of making the declaration of paternity, there is an action for establishing the paternity of another man, the declaration of paternity shall become of full effect according to Section 4:101. (6) of the Civil Code, if that action is completed with finality without the establishment of paternity.
  - Challenging paternity is possible according to Section 4:107. (2) of the Civil Code. Section 4:107. (2) of the Civil Code declares that if the presumption of paternity is based on a declaration of paternity with full effect, the presumption can also be challenged on the grounds that
    - a) the declaration, in the absence of fulfilling the legal conditions, is not of full effect;
    - b) the declaration of paternity has been made by mistake, due to misrepresentation or under unlawful threats; or
    - c) the declaration of paternity has been made in order to circumvent the law.
- If the declaration of paternity with full effect is made for a child of full age, the child may declare whether he intends to bear the family name of his birth father henceforward or continues to bear his family name worn so far. In the absence of such declaration, the presumption of paternity shall not affect the child's name
